Dear Irving:

This is everybody's war! That is why some friends, as yet unknown to you personally may take the initiative in writing to you.

A note of explanation may be in order. The good firm of Bell's Store Inc., has many business friends, none of whom you may recall - but we're friends just the same.

These include - Mr. Harry A. Gralnick, A. N. Prussin and ourselves.

Just to let you know that we're thinking of you, we have to-day dispatched with our compliments a pair of barracks slippers. We hope they fit and that you will find use for them.

With all good wishes - and hoping the time may not be far off - when we can meet you personally.

Very truly yours,
MIDWEST SHOE COMPANY

A. A. Snyder
