come home he said he wants to fly as they are taking off the priorities he said it is cheaper than going by train & Pullman, we still don't know when he will be here The weather is just ideal here now trust you have nice weather where you are now.

Keep well my darling and keep us posted how you are, much love to you my sweet from Dad & your ever Dear Ernie:- Today I in your letter of sept. 11th ^{you} you say that you would like to take up business adm. I am sure you will like it & it will do you good so you & Jerry could take over where & when I will leave, lots of love Dad

Dearest Sammy:-

Rec a letter from you which you wrote the 13th also the New Year card for which Dad and I thank you so very much I thought you wouldn't forget to send us your wishes as I know my sonny I can't understand why these letters were delayed for almost a month however it is good to see your handwriting I hope & trust that you are enjoying good health and that you are spending your spare time in an enjoyable way. Dad & I are O.K. and do the usual chores every day. Keeping busy is good for us. Had a letter from Gerald he is preparing to
