Dinner at Western Skies Will Honor Mrs. Adler

A citywide tribute will be paid to Mrs. Ranna Adler at a testimonial dinner Feb. 20 at Western Skies.

Special guest George Jessel will serve as master of ceremonies at the 6:30 p.m. dinner.

A resident of the area for 32 years, Mrs. Adler will be honored for her dedication and devoted service to Judaism, the Jewish community and the economic well being of the State of Israel.

Sponsored by B'nai B'rith Lodge 326 and the Albuquerque Committee for State of Israel Bonds, the testimonial dinner will acknowledge Mrs. Adler's efforts in advancing the cause of Israel bonds.

Mrs. Adler has been cited in the past for her work in advancing the interest of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, and for her services in behalf of the United Jewish Appeal. She has been active in family service activities and general social welfare in the Albuquerque Jewish community.

The mother of two sons, she will soon receive a sociology degree from the University of New Mexico. Her husband, Hyman, is superintendent of services at the university.

Henry Faye is serving as general chairman of the event. Nate Wineberg is dinner chairman. Associate chairmen are Wayne Bobrick, president of B'nai B'rith Lodge 326; Kurt Kube; and Dr. Myron G. Rosenbaum.

Jessel to Speak At Mrs. Adler's Tribute Dinner

Comedian George Jessel will be master of ceremonies at the B'nai B'rith tribute dinner for Albuquerquean Mrs. Ranna Adler Sunday night at Western Skies.

Mrs. Adler, an Albuquerque resident for 32 years, is being honored for her participation in drives for Israel bond sales.

The mother of two sons, she has been cited in the past for her work with the United Jewish Appeal and for advancing the interest of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The bond drive is now entering its 15th year of operation in the U. S., as Israel marks its 18th year of independence.

Revenues are used for development of Israeli industry, agriculture, natural resources, harbors and railways, road construction, and increasing electric power.

Regarding bond sales, Nate Wineberg, chairman of the dinner, said, "Our work has been indispensable to that part of Israel's achievement which has been of direct benefit to people and governments all over the world."
