The New Mexico Jewish Historical Society's 15th Annual Conference, "Havurot, Hippies and the Hollywood Ten", takes a fresh look at the diverse Jewish communities of New Mexico in the last half of the 20th century. Speakers and panels will give first-hand insight into Jewish life during this fascinating time.

Two films will be screened: One of the Hollywood Ten (2000), which focuses on the life of director Herbert Biberman, who was blacklisted during the 1950s, and Biberman's rarely seen Salt of the Earth (1953), which was filmed in New Mexico with blacklisted actors and mining families from Silver City.

Conference programming is subject to change.
