

It will attempt to formulate a pre-release program involving community volunteers under the guidance and supervision of a professional.

Kellogg plans to remain on the Board as the chair until these goals are realized.

In addition to these activities Kellogg was a volunteer and first president of the Board of Rape Crises Center, Inc. during the years 1974-78 and was the writer of a government grant for funding during the first year.

Leah also has been outfielder on a softball team during the 1978-79 seasons.

Leah is also an accomplished Bridge player, working towards Master points.

Because of her deep religious committment Leah Kellogg was Bat Mitzvah in June of 1980.

Other hobbies include gardening, golf, and being on the Board of the building committee for a new Temple.