

Nominated by Petition

ah
2:00

Leah Kellogg's name has been placed in nomination for the position of president of Temple Beth Shalom in accordance with the temple by-laws. She is asking for your support and your vote at the general membership meeting December 13, 1992. With her leadership and dedication we can bring the congregation together. The following is her Statement of Purpose:

- To bring the congregation of Temple Beth Shalom together; including old and new members, former members and non-members.

- To foster more open communications between congregants and the Board, providing a forum for congregants' concerns during the first thirty minutes of Board meetings.

- To work diligently to balance the budget and to develop new fundraising sources; to provide fiduciary responsibility in all financial matters.

- To appoint a Rabbinical Search Committee that will select a rabbi who will serve the diverse needs of the congregation.

- The position of Rabbi Emeritus is currently held by Rabbi Leonard Helman, who will continue in that post.

Leah Kellogg is a 45-year resident of Santa Fe,. She was a member of the United States Army, serving at Bruns General Hospital in Santa Fe and in Normandy, France.

She is past president of Temple Beth Shalom, past president of the Temple Sisterhood, Hadassah (named Woman of the Year, 1989), Rape Crisis Center, and the County Jail Advisory Board. She headed the Mitzvah Corps, and had her Bat Mitzvah at age 60. She was on the Building Committee for the present Temple.

Leah is a member of the tap dancing group, the Scarlet Ladies, a Life Master bridge player; she golfs and enjoys excellent health. She has been married to Arden Kellogg for 26 years, and has three children and one grandchild. She is 72.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Leah at 982-0928.