There you have 8 good reasons to attend. A ninth equally important but not as materialistic can be found in the Passover Service when you instruct the distainful son:

"This the Lord did for us - not you - but us when he brought us out of the land of Egypt."

You are B'nai B'rith, and it is you. It is no more or less than you make it and it can give you no more than you want to accept.

ATTACHED IS A CARD TO BE RETURNED. Since a guarantee is required, if you say you are going and find you cannot attend, please cancel your reservation by calling Mel Baron - 298-7901 or Biff Bobrick - 265-0207. Post cards must be returned by May 1 for reservations.
