Dear Mr. Taichert,

I recently have been checking back through some of my old correspondence and came across your letter you mailed us November 24th 1975. This letter was in regard to Mr. Nathan Weil, my husband's grand father. I thank you for the information you provided me. This new letter may seem an imposition to you and I apologise, but I am desperate for information and there aren't too many people who have been able to help me.

I have contacted the Trujillo family who now live in Colorado (i.e. Mr. Weil's housekeeper - Elena Trujillo & their 9 children) and they are unable to give me many clues as they didn't know for many years that Mr. Weil was their father.

Edith David never wrote back to me when I asked her about her father.

So - any information you could recall about Nathan Weil - his family history, how he happened to be born in Paris - anything, would be greatly appreciated.

I know you are probably quite busy, so reply at your convenience and remember - I will welcome anything you can recall about this man.

My sincere appreciation
& Thanks,

Mrs. Valerie Slaughter

NOTE

Do you know if he had any brothers or sisters?
